

Traveling in Honduras to La Mosquitia

International Airport, La Mosquitia

Walking the streets of Puerto Lempira

Rotarians Departing on a trip to Tailibila

Laguna Caratasca

Norma's house in Mococon

Rotarians visiting village of Mocarón

Rotarians visiting with children of Mocoron

Typical Elementary School

Woman's Project

Daily task of carrying water from the Rio Mocerón

Water Well in Need of Repair

Canoeing down the River

Strolling through the Village

Typical Family

Smiling Faces

Children of La Mosquitia

Ann Mitchell Teaching Computer Skills in Mocoron

Fifth Graders waiting to learn

Jr. High School in need of repair (or build a new one)

Typical School Day

A Few Homes before and after getting help

Children of Salto

Little Church of God

Bujutia Bridge built by USAID

Mosquitia Rain Forrest

Health Clinic Mocoron Built by USAID 2005

Computer Learning Center built by USAID 2005

Young Girls Husking Rice

Inauguration of the Computer Center September 2005

Jarmon and Students Singing “Mocoron”

Rebecca, La Mascota

